The Inter-Cultural Society of London

'Friendship and Fellowship'

in association with

The British-Hungarian Society

cordially invites you to

A Diplomatic Evening to Celebrate Hungarian Culture

Counsellor Andrea Norman-Walker, Embassy of Hungary, will open the Evening's Events in the absence of His Excellency, Ambassador Janos Czak.

Our Keynote Speaker and Guest of Honour will be the eminent and distinguished Sir Gavyn Arthur. KT. He was educated at Harrow School and Christ Church, Oxford (MA Jurisprudence). Doctor of Civil Laws (City). He was called to the Bar in 1975 (financial law).

As Lord Mayor from 2002 to 2003, he was the spokesman and ambassador for financial services of London and UK with rank of Cabinet Minister. Speaker and discussion leader at World Economic Forum, Davos; headed talks in Athens and Rome with EU presidency countries on financial services regulation. He hosted meetings with Brussels Commissioners. Has led delegations for talks with US Treasury, Federal Reserve, World Bank, IFC, Asian Development Bank, as well as foreign, finance and trade & industry ministries, central bank governors and regulators across the world.

Over the past years has had detailed meetings in London and abroad with more than 80 heads of state and government, including US and Russian Presidents. Sir Gavyn was appointed a Judge by HM the Queen. Retains special responsibilities on behalf of the City of London for Middle East and Maghreb countries.

The special Cultural feature of the evening will be an exhibition of Hungarian embroidery and crafts. In addition, there will be a performance by the Balaton Hungarian Folk Dance Group, named after Lake Balaton. The Dance Company will perform Hungarian Folk Dances from the regions of Hungary and the Hungarian Communities in Transylvania. The Evening will include a traditional Hungarian Dinner to be accompanied by both red and white wines, juice or soft drinks; Hungarian dessert, coffee or tea.

The Inter-Cultural Society of London would like to thank our member, Countess Ilona Esterhazy, Hon. Secretary of The British – Hungarian Society for coordinating this Diplomatic Evening with the Embassy of Hungary.
